

HELP YOU CAN TRUST

AzMortgageResource.gov

Did you know the Arizona Attorney General's Office has a wide range of statewide assistance programs funded through the national mortgage settlement that could benefit you or people you know?

- ➔ Zero interest, zero payment, forgivable loans from the AZ Mortgage Relief Fund to help with: past due payments due to a hardship, principal reduction, or refinance when a loan is going to become unaffordable due to a hardship or an interest rate increase.
- ➔ Foreclosure prevention and financial literacy counseling by HUD-approved housing counselors.
- ➔ Free legal help with mortgage related issues for people at risk of or impacted by foreclosure.
- ➔ Relocation assistance for people who lost their home or were evicted due to foreclosure, or are facing a rent increase that will be unaffordable.
- ➔ Job training and employment services for people who lost their home or were evicted due to foreclosure.
- ➔ Funds for veterans with service-connected disabilities who can't afford to make accessibility improvements and maintain their mortgage payment.

Find program contacts and more at
AzMortgageResource.gov

602-542-1797 in Phoenix
1-855-256-2834 outside Phoenix

